

Prime Minister's Youth Skill Development Program: Aimed at training unemployed youth for acquiring productive skills for gainful employment.

- Trainees are not only being trained free of cost but are also paid monthly stipend @ Rs. 3000/student for 6 months training period (Rs. 4000/m in case of FATA students).
- NAVTTC has selected good quality training institutes in the private sector through Expression of Interest (EOI) in the media, and physical verification of the selected institutes. However, public institutes are selected by provincial govt. i.e. TEVTAs, Social welfare Departments, Labor Departments etc.
- Madaris graduates with certificates/diploma equivalent to Matric are also made eligible to apply. The same has been advertised in the media.
